To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Mayo, at the General Assizes assembled in Spring 1780.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Mayo, strongly impressed with the highest Sense of your Majesty's Benevolence and paternal Attention to the Welfare and Prosperity of your faithful Subjects of Ireland, feel ourselves at this Time called upon by every Motive of Interest and Gratitude thus publicly to express our warmest Acknowledgments to your Majesty for the late grand Extension given to the Commerce of this Kingdom, whereby Wealth and Affluence are at last placed within the Reach of every Man who shall have Industry and Ability to lay Hold of those Blessings, and whose Effects, if aided by the cherishing Hand of Harmony and good Order, must soon advance this long neglected Country to the highest Degree of Prosperity.

We are the more highly gratified by this Act of just Liberality, because we are persuaded it must kindle in the Breast of every true Irishman the most cordial Warmth and Attachment to our Fellow Subjects in Great Britain, whose Justice and Generosity we heartily concurred with your Majesty's Benevolence towards us.

And we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that the Advantages which we have received can in no other Light give us so high a Gratification, as when we reflect, that they will in due Time enable us the more firmly to support your Majesty's Royal Person and Government, and the more effectually to increase the Strength, Wealth, and Grandeur of the British Empire.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble and unanimous Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Longford in Ireland, at a General Meeting in Longford, March 23, 1780, convened by the High Sheriff.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Longford, beg Leave to approach your Majesty, at this auspicious Season, with Hearts firmly attached to your Majesty's Government.

[Price Three-pence Halfpenny.]

ment, and gratefully sensible of your Majesty's paternal Attention to the Happiness of your People.

We rejoice in common with the rest of our Fellow-Subjects, at the salutary Extension of our Commercial Rights vouchsafed to us by your Majesty's Wisdom; and we anticipate, with filial Ardour, the rising Prosperity of your Majesty's faithful Kingdom of Ireland, and the increasing Splendour of your Majesty's Crown.

Bound by the Sacred Ties of Affection and Duty, and glowing with the warmest Sensations of Gratitude, we think it peculiarly incumbent on us publicly to assure your Majesty of our steady Perseverance in Loyalty, at a Time when the natural Enemies of your Royal Person and Dignity are engaged against your Majesty in an unjust and unprovoked War.

To reign in the Hearts of a free and prosperous People is the first Wish that animates the Breast of a Patriot King; and to repay every Act of Royal Munificence with unlimited Love and Confidence is the first Wish of a loyal People.

With a well-founded Hope of future Triumphs permit us to congratulate your Majesty on the late brilliant Advantages gained over the Ambition and Perfidy of the House of Bourbon by your Majesty's Arms; and joyfully to presage a long Continuance of every Domestick and National Felicity to the Father of his People.

Geo. Reynolds, Sheriff.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, the Mayor and Citizens of your Majesty's ancient and loyal City of Kilkenny, animated with every Sense of Attachment and Respect for your Majesty's Royal Person and Government, humbly beg Leave to declare our most grateful Acknowledgments of the late Instance of your Majesty's Paternal Attention to the Prosperity of this Kingdom.

The great commercial Advantages derived to us from the late Acts, while they afford the most adequate and effectual Relief to our Distresses, mark out the benevolent Father of his People, the Wisdom and Benignity of his Councils, and the Justice and Liberality of the British Senate, and at the same Time give us such Assurance of the Affection of Great Britain, as must connect the Interests, cement the Union, and double every Tie between the Two Nations.

Impressed with those Feelings, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that it shall be our invariable Object to cultivate among our Fellow Subjects Unanimity, and the warmest Zeal to promote the Honour and Dignity of your Majesty's Crown, and the Welfare and Glory of the British Empire. In Testimony whereof we have hereunto affixed the Corporate Seal of said City, the Twenty-third Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and eighty.

Sam. Cooke, Town Clerk.

Desart, Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bishop of Cork and Ross, and the Clergy resident in the City and Liberties of Cork.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop of Cork and Ross, and the Clergy resident in the City and Liberties of Cork, think ourselves at this Time in a particular Manner called upon to express, in Conjunction with our Fellow-Citizens, the warmest Sentiments of Gratitude for the important Favours lately conferred by Great Britain upon this Kingdom, the beneficial Consequences of which cannot but in due Time be diffused through every Rank and Condition of Men in the Community; we therefore beg Leave to embrace this Opportunity of humbly presenting to your Majesty our most thankful Acknowledgements for those ample Concessions, which so incontestably declare to the World your Majesty's paternal and equal Attention to the Liberties, Interests, and Happiness, of all your Subjects.

In order to accomplish your Majesty's gracious Intentions for the Prosperity of this Kingdom, it shall be our Care constantly to inculcate the Practice of those Duties which most effectually tend to render the Advantages we possess of the greatest Utility to the Publick. It shall be our Care to cement, as far as our Influence can reach, that Friendship and Good-Will to Great Britain, which is not less requisite to our own national Well-being, than conducive to the general Strength and Glory of the Empire. It shall be our Care, on every Occasion, to cherish and promote those Principles of zealous Loyalty, Attachment and Affection to your Majesty, which cannot fail to animate the Breast of every Man who knows how to value the distinguished Happiness of living under a just, mild, and auspicious Government.

May the Divine Providence be pleased so to direct all your Majesty's Counsels, and prosper your Undertakings, that you may speedily be enabled to triumph over your Enemies, and to restore the Blessings of Peace and Commerce to every Part of your Majesty's extended Dominions.
